

Dear World Famed Family,

It is with great pride and excitement that I welcome you to the inaugural edition of our quarterly World Famed Tiger Marching Band newsletter! This publication is designed to keep our cherished alumni—whether you marched on the hallowed grounds of the old Grambling stadium or later took the field in Eddie G. Robinson Stadium -connected to the heartbeat of our program. Whether you marched in the band or cheered us on from the stands, your continued support plays a vital role in preserving the legacy of The Best Band in the Land!

In each issue, we'll share performance updates, celebrate the achievements of our current members and alumni, highlight our goals for the season, and recognize the impact of the World And, of course, don't forget to follow us on all social media platforms to stay up to date with everything the World Famed is doing.

Thank you for your unwavering support. We look forward to continuing this journey with you as we uphold the excellence, precision, and power that define the World Famed Tiger Marching

GS! GS! GSU!

CONRAD HUTCHINSON

World Famed The World Famed Tiger Marching Band received a generous $20,000 donation from Winters Industries, an apparel company that specializes in custom merchandise for Divine Nine

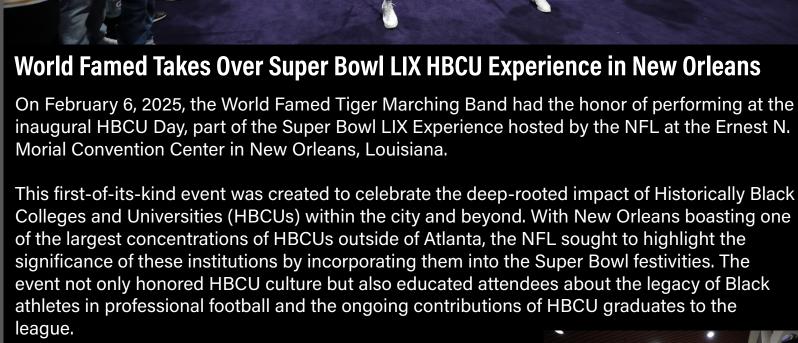

"We are deeply grateful for Jerime and Victoria's generosity. Support from our alumni not only helps sustain our tradition of excellence, but it also inspires our students and strengthens the legacy of the World Famed for Being asked to perform this tribute during the Bayou Classic Halftime Show was an honor of the highest level. Held annually in New Orleans' Caesars Superdome, the Bayou Classic is one of the most prestigious HBCU sporting events in the nation, drawing over 65,000 fans in attendance and attracting an average television viewership of more than 2 million, broadcast live on NBC.

With their signature precision, passion, and pride, the World Famed Marching Band brought history to life on the field—reminding the world once again why Grambling's musical legacy continues to shine on the biggest showcasing the excellence of HBCU culture on the national stage. Our participation in the Super Bowl HBCU Experience was another testament to our tradition of greatness, and we look forward to continuing to inspire and uplift audiences everywhere.

The World Famed Tiger Marching Band brought its signature sound and high-energy performance to the event, marching parade-style through the convention center and electrifying

Aeneas Williams (Southern University), and Mel Blount

As always, the World Famed Tiger Marching Band takes pride in upholding the legacy of Grambling State University and Double the Impact: World Famed Takes Over Dallas and Houston on the Same Night The World Famed Tiger Marching Band continues to prove why its name is synonymous with excellence, precision, and electrifying performances. On February 21, the band reached new heights—literally performing in two cities at once! In an unprecedented display of talent and demand, the World

Rockets games on the same night.

Famed split into two elite performance units, bringing their signature energy to both the Dallas Mavericks and Houston

In Dallas, the World Famed delivered a high-energy performance that had Mavericks fans on their feet, embodying the spirit and excitement that only Grambling's finest can bring. Meanwhile, in Houston, the band brought that same legendary power to the Rockets' home court, electrifying the crowd with precision and showmanship that left a lasting impression. What makes this feat even more remarkable is that despite splitting into two separate groups, the World Famed maintained the same high standards of musicality, intensity, and crowd engagement in both arenas. The ability to execute two top-tier

Marching Band is one of the most sought-after collegiate bands in the country. As demand for the band continues to grow, one thing is certain—wherever the World Famed performs, history is made. You can watch the footage here

The Dallas Mavericks and Houston Rockets each wanted the World Famed to energize their arenas, setting the stage for an unforgettable night of entertainment. Rather than choosing one opportunity over the other, Dr. Nikole Roebuck and the band leadership made history by ensuring both teams got the full World Famed experience. This bold move not only showcased as a powerhouse in collegiate marching bands.

dynamic and sought-after musical ensembles in the country.

Accompanied by the mesmerizing grace of the Orchesis Dance Company, the performance was a masterclass in showmanship—blending rhythm, movement, and the unmistakable essence of Grambling excellence. For decades, the World Famed Tiger Marching Band has been synonymous with high-profile performances, from Super Bowls to presidential inaugurations. Adding an NBA halftime show to its ever-growing résumé is yet another testament to the band's reputation as one of the most

The New Orleans Pelicans crowd welcomed the performance with thunderous applause, the football field. Whether in a stadium, an arena, or on a national stage, the World Famed

This latest milestone is more than just a performance—it's a statement. A statement that continues to inspire, entertain, and showcase the brilliance of HBCU culture.

proving once again that the sound and spirit of Grambling State University transcend beyond

Grambling's legacy is alive, thriving, and ready for whatever stage comes next! GS! GS! GSU! Join the Legacy: World Famed Tiger Marching Band Now Accepting Audition

Applications for 2025-2026!

The World Famed Tiger Marching Band is looking for the next generation of talented musicians to carry on its legendary tradition! We are now accepting applications for auditions for the 2025-2026 school year, and scholarships are available for those who demonstrate the skill, dedication, and excellence

Grambling State World Famed Tiger Marching Band Alumni, we encourage you to share this exciting opportunity with students who embody the talent and dedication of the World Famed standard. Invite them to take the next step in becoming part of our proud tradition of excellence.

WorldFamedBand.com. Don't let a deserving student miss out on the chance to become part

The application process is simple, and all necessary information can be found at that define the Best Band in the Land.

Band—where talent meets tradition, and greatness is the standard! APPLY NOW TO AUDITION

R

Share Forward

worldfamedband.com

Famed on and off the field. Band! Winters Industries

Donates $20,000 to the organizations and Historically

His gift, he emphasized, is not a one-time gesture. Winters expressed his desire to make this an annual commitment, reinforcing his long-standing love and support for the program that helped launch his professional journey.

Director of Bands Dr. Nikole Roebuck extended her sincere appreciation to the Winters family: years to come."

Famed" Tiger Marching Band delivered a moving halftime tribute at the request of Netflix, performing "The Journey" by Grammy Award-winning artist H.E.R. The performance paid homage to the 6888th Central Postal Directory Battalion—the first and only all-Black, all-female unit to serve overseas during World War II. The tribute coincided with the release of the Netflix original film The Six Triple Fight, directed by Tyler Perry and starring Kerry Washington.

stages.

the atmosphere with the unmistakable spirit of Grambling State University. As one of the highlights of HBCU Day, the band's performance was met with excitement from attendees, including HBCU students, alumni, and Super Bowl fans. Beyond the entertainment, the Super Bowl HBCU Experience offered giveaways, interactive exhibits, and historical insights into the connection between HBCUs and the NFL, featuring legendary players such as Doug Williams (Grambling State), (Southern University).

performances in two high-profile venues without sacrificing quality speaks to the incredible depth, discipline, and preparation of the program. This momentous night adds yet another chapter to the band's legacy, proving once again why the World Famed Tiger

Pelicans Halftime Show the New Orleans Pelicans and their roaring fans.

gsu_worldfamed

gsuworldfamed

of a legacy that spans decades and has graced the world's biggest stages.

SUBSCRIBE TODAY!